

Visitor visa (subclass 600)

Features

This visa lets you visit Australia:

- to visit or for business purposes
- for up to three, six or 12 months.

The base application charge for this visa ranges from AUD130 to AUD335.

If you hold a certain passport, you might be able to apply for a free or cheaper visa.

The eVisitor (subclass 651) visa is free. You must be a passport holder of a certain country.

The Electronic Travel Authority (subclass 601) visa has an AUD20 service charge. You must be a passport holder of a certain country.

Requirements

You might be able to get this visa if you are travelling to Australia:

- as a visitor
- for business visitor activities
- to visit family
- on a tour with a registered travel agent from the People's Republic of China.

Only certain passport holders can apply for this visa online.

If you cannot apply online you can lodge a paper application.

Medical Treatment visa (subclass 602)

Features

This visa allows people to travel to Australia:

- for medical treatment or consultations
- to support someone needing medical treatment who holds or has applied for this visa
- to donate an organ.

Requirements

You might be able to get this visa to:

- have medical treatment in Australia
- donate an organ
- support the person needing medical treatment. This person must hold or is applying for this visa.

You can also apply for this visa if you are in Australia, have turned 50 years of age, and have been refused a permanent visa only on the grounds of health.

Special Program visa (subclass 416)

Features

This visa aims to enhance international relations and cultural exchange by allowing persons to share cultural, social experiences, knowledge and skills in the Australian community through cultural enrichment, community benefits or youth exchange programs.

In addition to the Special Program, the Special Program visa (subclass 416) has another stream called Seasonal Worker Program.

Requirements

You can apply for this visa if you have been invited by an approved Special Program sponsor to participate in an approved youth exchange, cultural enrichment or community benefit program.

New Zealand Citizen Family Relationship (Temporary) visa (subclass 461)

Features

This visa allows a non-New Zealand family member of a New Zealand citizen to live and work in Australia for up to five years.

Requirements

You might be able to get this visa if:

- you are not a New Zealand citizen
- you are an eligible family member of a New Zealand citizen
- Your New Zealand citizen family member is living in Australia on a Special Category visa (subclass 444) or will be travelling with you to Australia and will be granted a Special Category visa (subclass 444) on arrival..

Transit visa (subclass 771)

Features

This visa lets you and your dependent children transit through Australia for no longer than 72 hours.

Requirements

You might be able to get this visa if:

- you need to enter Australia on your way to another country
- you need to pass through Australia for the purpose of travelling to join a ship as a member of the crew.